PROBLEMS, NEEDS, & INTERESTS IDENTIFIED:

The economy and crime are the biggest problems. Citizens have to understand that these are cycles and education will help. For example, don't sell your stock now because you will lose money or you need to call your mortgage company immediately if you fall behind in your payment.
People are taking money out the banks and criminals may use that to their advantage. People are also stressed because of the economy. Crime is real and it is perceived. Sometimes the media will overplay crime. Those who commit crimes don't see any other solution. The media should instill hope by telling success stories. Domestic violence is a big problem. We need to help people that have anger management issues.

PROBLEMS, NEEDS, & INTERESTS IDENTIFIED:

Young people need intervention and prevention. They are angry and they feel unwanted.

If the parent goes to jail, there is an 80% chance the child will also go to jail. There is one case where a father and son met for the first time and it was in jail. We're in competition with the gangs because they mentor and make the kids feel wanted. We need family values. It all starts at home. Some parents defend their kids when they're in the wrong. People should live below their means. People should be taught about credit, budgets, and discipline. The media should hold a fair featuring all non-profit agencies featuring so everyone can know what they do.
